Denison Today

In step with the times Denison has readily changed from the happy pre-war existence to one where students and faculty alike cooperate and strive for victory and peace. The buildings are still the same; in fact, there is little evidence in the physical make-up of the campus of the change that has come, but the attitude of Denison in general has acquired a deeper and more serious aspect.

TODAY DENISON MARCHES ON . .

Parade Rest

On the chapel steps today Marine green and Navy blue predominate the chapel itself seems to have acquired a new dignity and Denison Today stands ready to serve

Winter, summer, spring, or fall come rain or shine and even conflict the ever present beauty of Denison's landscape stands as a firm reminder of the peace that will always be found here

Denison's White House ★ ★ ★

... Where hospitality and a friendly cup of tea await all those who knock at the door.

To the Class of 1944:

You will remember your senior year at Denison as a war year. You will not forget the difficulties and the disappointments of the year, but there will grow upon you, I believe, the conviction that Denison students and faculty have played their parts worthily in this period of national emergency. Somewhere ahead lies peace. I dare to hope that Denison has prepared you, both in mind and in heart, for the responsibilities of those years ahead. Among the major needs of those years will be the need for intelligent men and women, socially sensitive to human problems and willing to carry community responsibility. May many such be found in your ranks.

KENNETH I. BROWN
President

Mrs. Louise W. Wright,
assistant to Dr. Brown

Class of '44

Donna Smith, Eloise Cook, Bonilyn Tomlin

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

John Gwinn.....	President
Eloise Cook.....	Vice President
Donna Smith.....	Secretary
Bonilyn Tomlin.....	Treasurer

The class of 1944 is the grown up "baby" of Dr. Brown; he took over the prexy work when they were freshmen - - - The seniors have watched and been a part of all the changes that have accompanied the war years; they were sophomores when the attack was made upon Pearl Harbor - - - They saw the service units become a part of the campus; they saw the erection of Life Science - - - All except a very few of the men of the class are now in the service; several of the women are also in service units or in nursing - - - In the class have been an unusual number of leaders; the women necessarily held key positions - - - According to Miss Barr's statistics, the women of '44 are the most intelligent and healthy co-eds to be admitted to Denison - - - The members of the class of '44 will ever remember the good times they had while in college; the Denison spirit they acquired; they will hold a deep gratitude for what Denison has given and meant to them.

In the year of 1941, 337 green "freshies" arrived bag and boggage at Gronville, Ohio. This class composed of 139 boys and 198 girls, although horribly "freshmen-like", looked as if they really had possibilities. The class is the last to have entered Denison during peacetime . . . Drastic changes have taken place in the class . . . One is the reduction in male constituents who now stand at the total number of 6 . . . The women have overcome the manpower situation by "taking over" the V-12 trainees that have been stationed at Denison . . . They have overcome the deficiency expressed by the disappearance of weekly fraternity open houses and have oriented themselves to USO style open houses held weekly at the various sorority houses . . . The student Union has become an important part of campus life due in a large part to the diligent work of many members of the class of '45 . . . The girls have made up for the lack of many school athletics in playing two and a half years of championship basketball, undefeated until they met the powerful class of '46 in February this year (Oh, what a sad day! !). . . Now this deflated class (in size) but inflated (in knowledge) approaches its senior year at Denison . . .

V-12 at Denison

Lt. Comdr. Maurice Von Cleove, USN, Commanding Officer.

In July, 1943, about 425 Navy and Marine V-12 trainees took over the Denison Fleet. Far the first part of the voyage the Leathernecks bunked in battle-scarred Talbot and the old cruiser Burton. The Bluejackets slung their hammocks in U.S.S. Stone, the good ship Manamoy, and the destroyer King. The men seemed to progress under abandon ship drills, Field Days, P. T., and an accelerated program of study so well that in October and February a number of them were transferred for advanced training. November and March brought replacements to take over their Naval duties, including scrubbing decks. Some were fresh water sailors; others had salt in their whiskers.

In March wearers of the blue took their sea bags to Talbot, where the shell holes had been filled in on the third and fourth decks, and the portholes had been weather-stripped. All of the cabins on third and fourth received a new coat of paint; the ship was insulated topside against heavy overhead storms. On second a study room was set aside while a lounge was furnished on first deck center. The fire alarm system was improved throughout the vessel.

When ashore, the servicemen can entertain the near-by co-eds or be entertained at the Student Union, U.S.O. open houses, the Red Shield Canteen, or various activities in Granville and Newark. The University welcomed the V-12 trainees; it hopes they will remember the time spent here.

Sigma Chi has managed to operate successfully in spite of the many war time difficulties at Denison. Mu Chapter lost many of its pre-war members and has not expanded as considerably as some fraternities on the campus, but under the able guidance of Jerry Robinson maintained a secure position.

Socially Mu Chapter can boast several open houses with Mrs. Harrington's help at various sorority houses. Since the intra-mural trophy race was suspended for the duration, Sigma Chi rests with two legs on the cup against none by any other fraternity.

V-12 student officers included six company commanders who were Sigs and two battalion commanders, Sigma Chi's also. Parnell Egan, Marine battalion commander, was elected to Blue Key and University Players; Bernie Wentis, ODK; and Jerry Robinson, next year's president of Men's Student Government and president of the Interfraternity council.

ALPHA ETA CHAPTER

Alpha Eta came through its first war year strong in spirit and united in confidence of the future. In spite of the loss of many of the older boys and the shifting to the new rooms downtown, the spring of 1944 finds the chapter still a growing, active, progressing organization.

The Betas crowned the winter athletic season with its winning of the inter-fraternity basketball championship. Then too, it was capably represented on the Big Red basketball team and baseball team and has promising material for next year's varsity football squad.

Socially the chapter carried out the traditional activities highlighted by the Christmas formal and a spring dinner-dance.

Finally, many members found their places on the rolls of Denison's national honorary societies. The vice-presidency of Blue Key as well as the presidency of O.D.K. and Masquers were filled by members of Alpha Eta.

What was formerly the Fijis' residential and meetin' place is now Betty Coed's boudoir. Relinquishing claim to their respected position next to the Beta's in Fraternity Row, the homeless Phi Gams turned to alumni Dr. W. T. Utter and Danner Mahood for refuge. The fraternity fought bravely to retain Lambda Deuteron, for it seems that the Army and Navy wanted their share of Phi Gams too. Nevertheless, Phi Gamma Delta marches forward!

One of the outstanding social events of the fraternity was the annual Norris pig dinner, held annually at the Granville Inn around Homecoming time and attended by actives and Denison alumni of Lambda Deuteron.

Jack Peters and Jim Schuler replaced A/S Donald Eschman and A/S Lee Ashmun during the year as president and treasurer, respectively. A/S Paul Robinson was chapter secretary. Pvt. James Short was elected to Blue Key; Gordon Speckman is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon.

Since the V-12 arrival on campus last July, the Kappa Sigs have initiated three times, a total of 22 new members. This increases the number of actives to 36, a group which has kept well organized and socially active even though it has lost many of its members from the D. U. campus. The chapter house on Broadway is now being used as a dormitory for freshman women.

Four Kappa Sigs now in the Navy Med-school are Chick Patrick, Johnny Gwinn, Chuck Staudt, and Dick Royer. Jim Shipan and Walt Sutton are in Midshipmen's schools; also claimed by the Navy are Dave Hunt and Larry Ward. Bob Barton, Richard Kremm, and Bob Ashbury were taken by the Army.

Twice a month at the Inn, Kappa Sigma had dinners for all the members and especially for the pledges. Early in September the chapter had a hay ride. The Christmas Formal and dinner was held at the Inn; the winter dance was at the Alpha Phi house, and the Spring Formal was the finishing touch for the year. Although sports were at a premium this year, Kappa Sigma's fine sportsmanship was outstanding above her defeats.

The Phi Delta Theta house along with the majority of other fraternity houses was turned over to the freshman girls; the remaining evacuees took rooms on Broadway for the duration. Because of the wartime schedule of the campus, social activities were greatly curtailed this year, but the Phi Deltas held weekly open houses on Wednesday nights and also managed a Christmas dance at the Delta Gamma house and a May Day dinner at the Inn.

Several of the members distinguished themselves in campus activity: Matt Green was elected to Blue Key, and Jack DeTar was the Deni-Sunday chairman while Bob Vanderveer was chosen for Blue Key and O.D.K. Although inter-fraternity sports have been abolished for the time being, Harold Graves and Dick Higgs have been outstanding in track and basketball respectively.

Lambda Chi has been one of two fraternity houses on campus that has not been infested with the wiles and wims of "women". However, the members did not have the house to themselves, for it has been used as a dormitory for civilian men. Even so, the house was used as headquarters for the chapter.

The annual Christmas formal was held at the Alpha Phi house. Of course, there were regular meetings, initiations, and several open houses. In spite of unusual conditions, Lambda Chi was as active as ever.

Gamma Iota Zeta has two O D K men, "Butch" Halter and Jim Brucklacher. Jim is also a member of Blue Key.

The Lambda Chis adopted a wartime motto: "Remember the Reunion" is first in the hearts of the men who have left and must leave Denison.

Since fall when the S.A.E. house on Chestnut Street was given over to freshmen women, the Sig Alphas have been the proud possessors of the little house across the street from Stone Hall on Broadway. The little white house has proved itself a very sufficient meeting place as well as a comfortable spot for open houses and formals. The Christmas festivities began with dinner at the Inn followed by dancing at the house. The Valentine formal also was a big event. The most popular place in the house was the large open fireplace, the haven of "cozy couples." As often as possible the chapter travelled down to the Inn and gathered fellowship around the table.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon had the largest pledge class last fall. One hundred sixteen of the Ohio Mu are now in uniform. Stan Johnson headed D.S.G.A. as well as being a member of O.D.K. and Blue Key. Chick Plank, president of the chapter, was elected to Blue Key along with Dick Conrad. The Sig Alphas are proud of their basketball star, Lee Knorek and their actor, Irving Brown; Ralph Vawter was a member of the Denisonian staff; Harry Toney will be remembered for his MCing.

Although the A.C.C. house on the road to Sunset Hill was not taken over by women students last fall, it could not be used by the chapter as "their house"; the civilian freshmen made the house their dormitory. Therefore, the club rented a room downtown in Granville in which to hold their chapter meetings. After the pledges were put to work, the room had quite a job of interior decorating.

Frequent "smokers" were held in the room, and a number of successful jaunts to Columbus helped fill the social hours. The war may have decreased the number of members on campus and made it necessary to cut down on activities during the year, but certainly the spirit of the A.C.C.s was not changed.

The most successful alumnus of the year was Dr. Gordon Seagrave, whose BURMA SURGEON is now one of the best-sellers.

Every Thursday evening found a few Chi Os at the Newark Community House directing a group of young people in the art of crafts. Even in enthusiasm for this project Delta Gamma did not neglect campus activities, for many of the members have attained honors and important offices. Two of them, Virginia Benson and Charlotte Swain, were tapped for Mortar Board. Ginnie was also editor of the PORTFOLIO; Char was editor of the DENISONIAN and president of Pi Delta Epsilon. Ginnie Lou Stubbs was tapped by Crossed Keys. Other offices held on campus this year were vice-president of Y. W., Ruth Olds; president of Pan-Hellenic Council, Barbara Jo McDonald; chairman of the Community Service Program, Angie Heffner. Ruth Olds and Charlotte Swain made WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES. Displaying Chi Omega's beauty was Bonnie White, attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

Along the social line came many open houses, chapter suppers, alumnae tea, pledge tea, and open houses for the service men. Instead of the usual winter formal, the Chi Os had a dinner at the Inn followed by dancing at the house—and to an orchestra. In all, this war year has not hindered Chi Omega from getting the most out of college.

The traditional Kappa Alpha Theta mock wedding brought to a close the hectic rush week, from which Beta Tau emerged exhausted but triumphant, with twenty-four top-notch pledges. As the year sped on (as only a year under D. U.'s accelerated program can speed) the Little White House was the scene of many and varied activities. Playing U.S.O. Hostess was a new vocation, but they soon caught on and became adamant fans of this new trend. This year the Thetas have claimed recognition for their athletic skill by winning the renowned Kappa-Theta football game and a volley ball game with the Delta Gammas.

The Thetas, in cooperation with the Alpha Xis, continued to have as their social service project, the Nursery School at the Baptist Church. Here, each Wednesday, sophisticated sorority girls turn into conscientious mothers for three hours. Despite the curtailing of many activities due to the war situation, Theta has clung to many of her traditional activities, such as Scholarship Banquet, Founder's Day Celebration, Christmas Party and Dad's Day Luncheon. Beta Tau has been ably guided this year by Janice Stevens. Jan is one of the outstanding members of Denison's campus as a member of Mortar Board, D.S.G.A., and an active participant in Masquers.

A successful rushing season which included parties from the ridiculous (the "Bowery" party) to the sublime (an "ultra-ultra" style show) ended with the pledging of twenty-five freshman women. The pep and enthusiasm of the pledge class continued throughout the year, the crowning triumph being the Valentine dance which was cleverly decorated with hearts and cupids. Other enjoyable social affairs of the year were the smooth, romantic South Sea Island formal during the Christmas season and numerous open houses, U. S. O. style, for the service men.

All has not been play, however, for Tri Deltas have been aware of war activity and community service as well. They bought war stamps regularly and supported the "March of Dollars" generously. They have been in charge of a girls' sewing class at the Newark Community House and gave a Christmas party for these girls during the holidays. The children were given little pins to identify them with the sewing club—an event which pleased them greatly for they now were "just like the sororities at Denison."

They are very proud of their president, for "Eller" served in the capacity of Mortar Board president, Senior representative on D.S.G.A., was elected to "Who's Who," and was married—all in one year! Thelma Willett became a member of Phi Beta Kappa; Pat Kienker served as president of the Denison Guild, and Gena Davies was an attendant to the Winter Carnival Queen. The Kappas began the year with the pledging of twenty-four future Kappa Kids. To liven up the fall season they challenged the Thetas to a touch football game; much spirit was aroused on the Denison campus climaxed by a Kappa pep rally the night before the game. However, the next day saw the Kappas' color changed to black and blue in a 6-0 defeat. Later, the little white house was transformed into the "Kappa Kozy Krotto" as the theme of the ever successful fall formol.

Initiation in February was followed by the biggest social event of the year, a formal dinner-dance, which did a lot to tide spirits over until the long-awaited spring vacation.

Kappa is proud of its outstanding members in campus activities. Dorothy Jean Kerr ably managed her work as co-president of D.S.G.A.; Phyllis Heidenreich also had a big task as president of the Y.W.C.A.; Pat Wood saw her Student Union put into action, and it is a credit to her long hours of work which kept it running smoothly.

When the air cleared after the confusion of rush week, twenty brand new Alpha Phis were ready for the conditioning process of that first college year. The blows were softened under the guidance of Marga Klammt, pledge mistress . . . Queen Tony Anthony started things off right by presiding over Homecoming. Beautiful women are another Denison tradition which hasn't been broken yet. Upholding it, Nan Varde ruled over Winter Carnival, while Laura Lee Cowen took charge of the day . . . Prexy Claire Thomassen's original song is fast becoming a Denison favorite.

Ever see a circus with soft lights and music? Well, the Alpha Phis created one for their annual fall formal . . . At Christmas uniforms succeeded the tails and tuxes of other years, but the tradition of dinner at the Inn, Old English style, complete with roast pig, didn't suffer on this account.

But all is not play . . . As Chairman of Women's Council, Donna Smith helped student government function . . . Barbara Handyside, Betty Snyder, and Pat George cooperated to relieve headaches aplenty for Newark mothers for at least one night a week when they took over the Community House.

Beta Kappa is going to miss . . . Barbara Crangle's morale building wit, but there are more at home . . . they're still waiting for Red to grow up . . . "Mom" is always on hand to make the house a home.

In spite of the crowded calendar on the new accelerated schedule and ration difficulties this year, members of Alpha Omicron Pi continued directing the cooking class at the Newark Community House. Helping children is also the theme of their National War Work, with each girl purchasing a certain number of war stamps which will be used at maturity for the rehabilitation of children in war-torn areas. The A.O.Pis participated in the War Chest Drive, of which Helen Caulthurst was campus co-chairman. In addition to war work, they sent Christmas gifts to their Frontier Nursing Service in Wendover, Ky.

Distinguishing themselves on campus this year were many A.O.Pis. Millie Holt is president of W.A.A. and a member of Mortar Baard. Mary France was president and Mary Lou Decker, Barbara Robertson, and "Yoy" Smith members of Crashed Keys. On the Community Service cabinet of the Christian Emphasis program was Norma Naab, who also was in charge of the Shiloh Baptist recreation center in Newark. Joyce Clark was elected to Phi Society.

Since the former head resident of the Alpha Xi Delta house, Miss Louise Ralston, has joined the WAVES and become a lieutenant junior grade, another young faculty member has taken her place. Miss Ann Elizabeth Heilman, an Alpha Xi herself, is now occupying the suite. The war promoted U. S. O. work as well as calling Miss Ralston. During the 1943 summer the house was used by U. S. O. workers and has continued to be used for this work during the regular academic terms.

The Christmas party for the children of the Granville Nursery will be remembered for a long while to come. Games were played; stories were told around the big Christmas tree; and of course, there was ice cream and cookies and gifts to take home. "The Record Ball" broke all "records" for a formal. Records were strung over the room representing various popular songs.

It seems that the presidents of the Alpha Xis are Navy bound; ex-presidents Kornman and Lorig are now married to ensigns, and this year's president Jinny is engaged to an apprentice seaman. Whether it be U.S.O.ing, blood-donating, or keeping up the Navy's morale, the Alpha Xis are doing their part.

After a hectic but successful rush season, Beta Zeta rolled up its sleeves and settled down to tackle the problems brought about by a wartime college year. No more elaborate chapter suppers with all the hamburgers one could eat; instead, the supper committee struggled, and very successfully, to dodge ration points. Gone were the wonderful formal dances with food and favors, but the informal open houses and all-school dances were just as much fun. The fraternities contributed their houses as well as their members to the war effort, and so Beta Zeta lent its house to the Phi Dels for their Christmas formals.

September found Beta Zeta at the top of the scholastic list on campus—a wonderful feeling while it lasted. In spite of the speeded up program the chapter managed to continue its work with the Braille Club of Newark. None of those present will forget the Christmas party given for the Braille Club at the D G house; the club stole the show with the songs they wrote and sang. It was right after Christmas that Mrs. Solliday, Beta Zeta's new housemother, was introduced to the campus. It was a rushed year, but Beta Zeta discovered at the end of it that it had done all and even more than was usually crowded into a regular school year.

Denison Student Gov't

The Denison Student Government Association has been most successful and active this year under the direction of the co-presidents, Dorothy Jean Kerr and Stan Johnson, secretary Priscilla Cole, and treasurer, Jack Heller.

Perhaps the greatest achievement as far as scholastic progress is concerned was the beginning of an Honor Code. Under the chairmanship of Mortha Prott great advances were made, and the plan was proved most worthwhile. As far as social life is concerned, the establishment of the Student Union with Chip Wood and Peg Gilliam as co-choirmen created o much needed place for reloxotion ond improved the relation-ship between service men and civilians. Other activities af impotence which D.S.G.A. initiated and sponsored were D-Day, the Bond Drives, and Women's Day.

The mast novel project was the All-Denison Revue in which all service units and civilians porticipoted. It was mare than successful.

All things considered, during this wor year, D.S.G.A. has remoined as active as ever and hos created worthwhile legislation for the benefit of service men, civilian students, ond faculty.

Phi Beta Kappa

THETA CHAPTER FOUNDED 1911

Election to Phi Beta Kappa Society is the most distinguished honor that can be bestowed on any junior or senior. This national honorary society, now in its thirty-third year at Denison, selects those students each year who have been outstanding in scholarship during their college career. Though many strive for such an achievement, few actually attain it. Denison established Phi Beta Kappa Society in 1911 to recognize and encourage scholarship on the campus. This organization is supervised by a committee composed of: Dr. W. Alfred Everhart, president; Mr. Don Fitch, vice-president; and Mr. Walter Secor, secretary-treasurer.

Selected in their junior year from the class of 1944 for highest standing in scholarship are Charlotte Swain and Thelma Willett. Those elected in their senior year from the class of 1944 are Virginia Benson, Norma Naab, Henrietta Rosenfield, Dorothy Jean Kerr, Muriel C. Back, Robert Spike, Nancy Forsberg. Elected in her junior year from the class of 1945 was Virginia Lou Stubbs.

Associated with Phi Beta Kappa Society is Phi Society, which was organized at Denison in 1926 by Dr. Eri Shumaker to promote scholarship in the freshman class. Freshmen who have earned 56 scholastic points during the academic year are automatically entitled to membership in Phi Society. Representing the class of 1946 are: Joyce Clark, Carolyn Coulthurst, Norma Fanslow,

Omicron Delta Kappa is a well-known senior men's honorary; its members are chosen on the basis of outstanding work in college activities.

Monthly meetings were held this year in the homes of the faculty members during which campus activities and problems were discussed. O.D.K. was in charge of the honors convocation at which the new members of various honor societies were announced. Gordon Condit was president of the fraternity; Karl Eschman, secretary.

Mortar Board

Honoring senior women who possess the best in scholarship, leadership, and service to their school, Mortar Board's Denison chapter furthers the national aim to stimulate and develop a finer type of college women.

Acting as advisers to the new dean of women, Dorothy V. N. Brooks, and President Kenneth I. Brown, the members also found time to hold the annual scholarship banquet to which 116 women making over a 1.6 average were invited. The tutoring board, sponsored by the organization, also functioned. Tapping for new members is always held on May Day.

Presiding over the group this year was Eloise Cook, with Nancy Forsberg, vice-president; Mildred Holt, secretary; and Barbara Handyside, treasurer. Faculty advisers were Mrs. K. I. Brown, Mrs. Horace King, and Miss Lauriel Eubank.

Blue Key

Blue Key is a junior men's honorary organization based on leadership, scholarship, and extra-curricular activities. Because of the restrictions of the Navy and Marine units, their activities were somewhat limited; however, they were successful in keeping the high qualifications for membership, which characterized the group in peacetime.

This year's activities of the fraternity included the arrangements for the combined Father's Day and Homecoming celebration and also for the May Day festivities. The group sponsored the basketball pep rallies and planned entertainment during the halves of the games. The men also ushered at Deni-Sunday.

Crossed Keys

Tiny crossed keys are worn by those junior women who have distinguished themselves by campus leadership. As an honorary, the group functions to promote enthusiasm and loyalty in Denison activities.

Led by Mory France as president, assisted by Nancy King, secretary; Mory Anthony, treasurer; and Mory Lou Decker, social chairman, the group this year was in charge of the all-campus War Bond drives. Crossed Keys also sponsored two trips to the Lockbourne Air Base to view the Air WAC in action. All members of the organization served as ushers for several events and helped to regulate the convocation recessional.

Interfraternity

The Interfraternity Council corresponds to the Pan-Hellenic Council of the women. Its purpose is to govern the actions and activities of the Denison social fraternities. This year the council was guided by Gerald Robinson, president.

The problems differed somewhat from previous years because of the situation brought about by the loss of the regular fraternity members and the gaining of service men. With women occupying their houses, the fraternity men had the problem of finding chapter rooms downtown. The big social event of the Council was the Interfraternity Ball held in April in Curtis Hall.

Panhellenic

The first activity of the Pan-Hellenic Council this year was the organization of the Date Bureau and the U.S.O. sorority open houses; these services were established to answer the servicemen's request to meet the co-ed population.

In response to the demand for a formal dance, the Pan-Hellenic Sweetheart Ball was held at the Wigwam in February. This took the place and cut the expense of the Winter Formal dances which were formerly held at the sorority houses.

Pan-Hellenic consists of two members from each sorority and initiates any changes in sorority rules; it also represents the sororities in student government.

One of the largest of the campus organizations is the Young Women's Christian Association with a membership of women united in seeking to find a religious way of life including an understanding of the problems of the world, an approach to the activities of campus life, and an appreciation of the value of worship as a motivation for action.

As president of YWCA, Phyl Heidenreich directed the activities of the organization. In the fall the YW played a large part in introducing the campus to the freshmen. Cooperating with other schools, the Denison group sponsored an inter-racial panel here with representatives from other colleges. Thirteen Ohio colleges sent delegates to the southern Ohio conference held here in November. Dads were feted at a Sunday morning breakfast.

In the meanwhile the YW commissions were busy, helping in the Newark Hospital, collecting records and magazines for service men, organizing a Christmas party for the children in the Newark trailer camp, sponsoring the Palm Sunday breakfast, and buying gifts at Christmas time for the needy children of Granville. To usher in the Christmas season YW presented its annual pageant.

New features this year were the campus citizenship course in leadership for freshmen, the weekly Evensong service, a carry-over from Life Planning Week, and the Commission Retreat to encourage an awareness of the broader aspects of community service and its activities. Through its commissions and many activities YWCA lived up to all its ideals.

Community Service

Covering over twenty types of service, the Community Service program is an all-campus activity with the participation of fraternity and sorority groups, WAA, dormitories, YWCA, the Denison Guild, and the War Activities Commission. Most of the activities are centered around Granville, Newark, and near-by rural areas.

In some way or other everyone at Denison contributed to the Community Service program through the Clothes Canteen, the Oneida Stamp Collection, by buying Christmas presents for the needy children, or by participation in the special projects of the groups.

Whether it was painting a ceiling or directing games at the Community House in Newark, teaching the children in the trailer camp to play blindman's buff, organizing a club for Negroes, helping the girls of the V-Club in Central City to bake cookies for the service men, conducting services at a rural church, or taking care of Granville's younger generation at the nursery in the Baptist Church, the Community Service program was on the job. Besides these activities, still other enthusiastic helpers directed games during the noon hour at the Granville Public School, visited and entertained the blind, and called on the old people in town.

The Community Service program isn't limited to any one campus group, but it includes everyone. Through service to others, Denisonians who have participated have not only had lots of fun but have accomplished something worthwhile.

Deni-Sunday

Now in its second year, Deni-Sunday is a good-natured informal Sunday morning religious service designed to appeal to college students.

To encourage students to develop a meaningful philosophy of life is the purpose of Deni-Sunday. It is religious in the broad sense of that word, for it deals with anything which contributes to the growth of personality.

With its programs based directly on students' interests and problems, the service usually includes a talk by "Doc" Cuninggim while the music, presiding reading, prayer, ushering and stage design are all done by students. In his talks "Doc" has discussed everything from "For Better, for Worse" to "B.A. loney". Occasionally there have been special programs such as the "Information Please" and the appearance of the Men's Glee Club to sing "The Prodigal Son."

Organization and planning for Deni-Sunday and all its related activities is done by the Denison Guild which during the past year has been headed first by Bob Martin and then by Pat Kienker. Under the Guild are three other fields with their chairmen. Jack DeTar succeeded Louis Dudrow as chairman of the Deni-Sunday committee, Jody Scott supervises the all-campus activities, and Tommy Jean Williams and her committee are in charge of student relations. The Denison Guild is an organization of the religious and social activities on the campus.

"Doc" Cuninggim in a typical Deni-Sunday pose.

To supplement the Sunday morning Deni-Sunday program, the Guild has sponsored such activities as the Clothes Canteen in co-operation with community service, Denison Survey of Student Opinion, and discussion groups on controversial subjects and as a follow-up for Life Planning Week.

When "Doc" leaves at the end of April, Deni-Sunday must enter a new phase, but with the momentum it has gained under his leadership Deni-Sunday will continue to hold a prominent place on the campus.

Even Lee Cuninggim takes part in the committee meetings.

"There Shall Be No Night"

"The World Within", an original play by Denison's Gordon Condit, A./S., climaxed the '42-'43 year of the Denison University Theater. There followed this played at Temple University. Its premier in May, 1943, starred Dottie Donner and Bobbie Johnson, BWOC's in dramatics last year, and Gordon himself, psychological drama such widespread acclaim and comment that Gordon received royalty on its production at St. Olaf College, in Minnesota; it was also whose acting ability is well known.

Dads'-Grads' week-end. Playing for four nights, the full houses were ample evidence of the audiences' enjoyment of this unusual combination of humor and terror. "Sparky" Kingsbury and Dottie Kerr portrayed the two "dear" old ladies with the homicidal tendencies. A newcomer to Denison, Pvt. Parnell Egan was outstanding as one of the few sane characters in the play.

Peg Collins, an old Denisonian back this year as technical director to the University Theater, successfully handled the direction of James M. Barrie's fantasy, "Dear Brutus". Her sets, designed in the eerie style of the mood of the play, were unique in their originality. A/S Dick Welsbacher set the mood of the fantasy with his impish and imaginative acting. The voice of Barrie floating over the audience was a technique adapted advantageously from the University Players' rival, the movie industry.

In January the Theater sensitively and successfully produced "There Shall Be No Night." Dramatic and thought provoking, the play received mature handling with seniors Gordon Condit, Jan Stevens, and Ginnie Benson taking the leads. The season closed with "Junior Miss" in April.

THE DOWN-BEAT AT DENISON

No matter whether it's a jam session at the Wigwam with the Navy-Marine Swing Band or a concert at Swasey Chapel, Denisonians all appreciate music. College life at Denison would hardly be harmonious without various musical entertainment to soothe and charm the students. Heading the musical staff at Denison's Conservatory of Music is Karl Eschman. Let's hop the bandwagon where the accent on "Music at Denison" is placed.

SHE SHALL HAVE MUSIC WHEREVER SHE GOES

The key for women music majors is Delta Omicron, national music fraternity. Certain to be in tune are D.O.s Thelma Willett, president; Norine Swope, Verna Swartz, Claire Thomassen, Marjorie Nowak, Lois Kinney, Mary Anthony, Virginia Stubbs, Peggy Redmond, Jean Haymans, Beverly Podlesney, Mary Lou Dyer, Madelyn Lockhart, Doris Jefferson, Helen Ault, Evelyn Woosley, Mary Ann Hull.

HALLELUJAH

The traditional Handel's "Messiah" was once again performed with Mr. Eschman conducting the 100-voice chorus and orchestra. Guest singers for the occasion were Betty Fry Dumaree, Helen Holscher, Howard Jarrett, and John Bennett Ham. For the spring concert the Chorus sang Schubert's Mass "Krie Eleison." In both events the orchestra, combined with the Newark Philharmonic, assisted the Chorus. Sam Gelfer directed the Denison Orchestra.

FROM THE HALLS OF MONTEZUMA ANCHORS AWAY

Instead of the regular civilian men's glee club Mr. Eschman organized a Navy-Marine Chorus which was active in programs and recitals during the year.

FIGARO, FIGARO, FIGARO

Pursuing the study of the history of the opera, Dr. Kellogg organized an opera workshop. Members from this guild produced Mozart's opera, "Bastien and Bastienne," and the Gilbert and Sullivan "Yeoman of the Guard."

AND THE BAND PLAYED ON

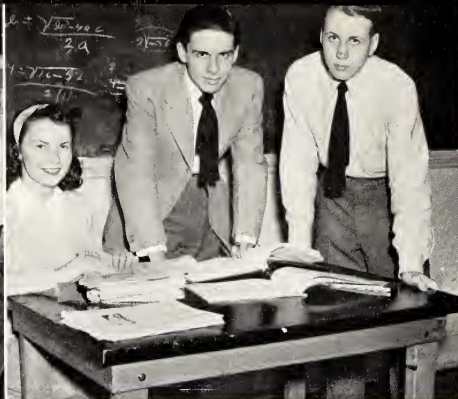

Not to be overlooked is the Navy-Marine Swing Band, which provided music for several basketball games, dances, and various programs.

Publications

At Denison publications play a large part in the journalistic and literary interests of the students. The Board of Control of Publications, of which Charlotte Swain was chairman and Virginia Lou Stubbs, secretary, supervises the publications of the DENISONIAN, ADYTUM, and PORTFOLIO. Also on the board were Pvt. Owen Road, senior member; A/S Bob Vanderveer, junior member; Danner Mahood, adviser of the ADYTUM; Eri Shumaker, adviser of the PORTFOLIO; Edward Wright, adviser of the DENISONIAN. Ruth Outland is technical adviser of all three publications.

Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalistic fraternity, sponsors campus publications. Members are chosen from among the outstanding students based upon two years' work on any journalistic effort. Pi Delt sponsored a bridge tournament this year, issued the student directory and supplements, and paid for three memberships to Associated Collegiate Press and to the National Scholastic Press Association. Charlotte Swain was president of the fraternity; Barbara Jo McDonald was secretary-treasurer.

With Virginia Benson as editor and Marga Klammt as assistant editor, the PORTFOLIO functioned as usual this year, putting out four issues of student effort in poetry, essay, story, drama, and art. One of the achievements of the PORTFOLIO appeared in the form of a new design on the cover of the third issue.

The main key of the DENISONIAN was Charlotte Swain, editor-in-chief. With Char, Ginny Lou Stubbs, managing editor, Carie Coulthurst and Judy Crangle, news editors, the DENISONIAN gave the students an issue every Friday. This year the tabloid type of paper was used for the first time. It seemed other changes were also in line; the printing was done in Johnstown instead of in Newark or Granville. Also each branch of the service represented on campus had its own part in the weekly newspaper. Bill Albershardt, advertising manager, and Gordon Speckman, business manager, both of whom are freshmen, are to be commended for their work.

Although the ADYTUM staff worked under difficulty due to the shortage of photographers, paper, and materials vital to printing and engraving, and an inadequate office in which to work, we feel we have given you, the reader, a book which will recall Den'son in the year '43-'44, the changes which accompanied that year, and some of the good times we had with it all.

Doris Franklin has put a great amount of her time and thought into editing the ADYTUM. Many the nights she and her staff heads, Lois Kinney, Assoc. Ed., Dottie Nelson, Art. Ed., and Julie Henzy, Copy Ed., sat huddled together in the "Powder Room" of Shaw Hall getting old and gray with work and dreaming between the pages of a grand and glorious trip to Florida when it's all over—object: Recuperation.

Departmentals

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC

The Denison Language Union is composed of all the faculty members in the literary departments. Regular meetings were held with speakers within the faculty and outside speakers. Jack Huggins spoke on "Fun with Flannegan" for one session; John Crow Ranson, editor of the Kenyon newspaper was the speaker for another meeting.

Franco-Calliopean membership is based upon inclination and talent towards literary work. Dr. King was adviser this past year. An enjoyable meeting was held at Christmas time in the King home where Yuletide stories were read. Marga Klammt was president; Henrietta Rosenfield, secretary; Virginia Lou Stubbs, treasurer.

Emily Beebe, president, presided over the meetings of Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary. The fraternity inaugurated a Spanish table this year in Colwell dining hall on Tuesday nights. Annual initiations banquets were held in February and April. Dr. DeLand advised the group; Dr. Amner is national president. Ann McDonnell was secretary-treasurer.

With Dr. Dean as faculty adviser and Alice Reigner, president, Eta Sigma Phi, classical society, was moderately active. Its main project was the sponsoring of the movie, "Last Days of Pompeii." Other officers were Nancy Forsberg, vice-president; Wilbur Powers, treasurer; Mary Jean Gard, recording secretary.

The Denison Committee of Correspondence has grown from Jack Day's Citizens Rights Committee last year into an official chapter of the national C.O.C., which was started several years ago at Antioch College. Students and faculty, labor organizations, racial minorities, all got together on an equal basis to talk over some of the things from which Granville is so far away. The Committees of Correspondence with chapters in many midwestern colleges, is an association with the International United States Assembly, which is affiliated with the International Student Assembly, a world wide student organization. The main purpose of these groups is to promote democratic living particularly through organizing student opinion into political and social action. With this goal in mind, Denison C.O.C. has been sponsoring pressure tables and letter-writing campaigns, and some real "up-and-at 'em" action in this area in close co-operation with such groups as the Denison Community Service Program and the Granville Consumers' Co-operative Buying Group.

One of the worthiest projects sponsored by C.O.C. was the all-campus drive to raise funds to send students from Denison to work camps all over the country. With the total amount of some $225, students were given financial aid in attending work camps in Michigan, Chicago, Maryland, Kentucky, Indiana, and College Summer Service Group in New York City. The results have led to a further expansion of the drive in connection with the World Student Service Fund Drive, from which 10% of the results will send students to work camps again this summer. Other activities during the year were a trip to Wilberforce University, a visit to the housing project in Columbus, and several trips to find out about labor problems in wartime through discussions in Newark.

Due to the changes on the campus only three of the scientific departmentals functioned to any extent this year. Perhaps the most active was the Denison Scientific Association. The main purpose of the association, which is made up of members of the faculty in the science departments, is to sponsor the DENISON UNIVERSITY BULLETIN JOURNAL OF SCIENCE LABORATORIES. Meetings were held every two weeks. At these meetings the members presented papers of varied scientific interest. The past year Mr. Mahard was president; Clifford Ades, vice-president; J. H. Rush, secretary-treasurer. The permanent secretary is Dr. W. C. Ebaugh.

The math club, under the advisership of Dr. F. B. Wiley, met quite regularly. The programs consisted of talks by the professors and students on mathematical subjects and discussion not included in the limited time of regular classes. The club was led this year by Laura Lee Cowen, president; Miriam Graybill, vice-president; and Nancy Mathews, secretary-treasurer.

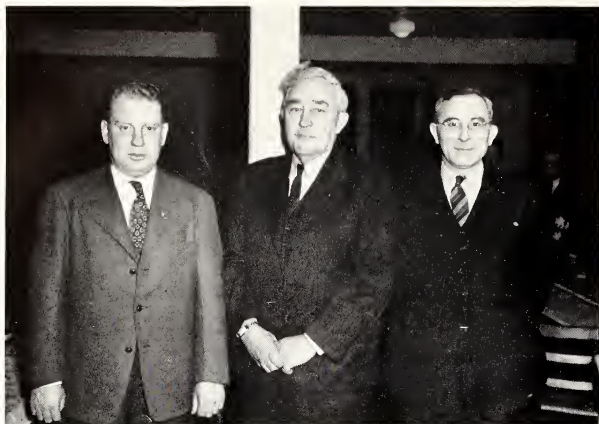

The Denison Chemical Society has been quite active on campus for over forty years, this year being no exception. After the first term ended in November, new members were elected and initiated into the society. Membership is based upon a B average in chemistry for two terms. Several V-12 men were included in this group. Until January William Cutler was president; upon his graduation, Wilbur Powers took over the work. Most of the meetings were devoted to student speakers. Their topics were items of chemical progress of special interest; several reports were given on summer lab experience.

ATHLETICS

While many changes in the athletic program of the university have been brought about by the war, Denison today has maintained its high enthusiasm for athletics. With the help of the many service men on campus the old D. U. spirit has been kept alive. The early close of the regular academic terms did not permit an extensive spring season, but the fall and winter programs were carried off in true Big Red style.

Last spring when it was announced that there would be no football at Denison this year, looks of disappointment came over the faces of many students. However, with the promise of the gridiron next year, the fall season swept by, and there was a Homecoming with speedball—a rough and tumble game, a cross between football and soccer. For those who needed spectator sports activities there was always an intramural game of football or soccer. And naturally—the command course and P. T. Although there was no inter-collegiate football for D. U., athletics was far from being at a standstill. The two ever-present spectators at all sports events were Crammit and Rammit — the canine fans.

The winter season was one of the best the university has seen. The Navy and Marine basketball players proved themselves a real asset and brought the state title to Denison. The spirit of all the students and their backing of the team was at a high peak all season.

Deaton puts in a tough one against Oberlin.

DeVette makes it look easy as pie—Port Columbus, the losers.

OHIO CHAMPS

D. U. CAGERS—

The Big Red cage team finished the 1943-44 basketball season with what will probably be the most successful record for many years to come. Winning 18 and losing only two games, this group of Navy and Marine Corps trainees were generally acclaimed champions of the state of Ohio as well as in the top 20 in a country overrun with cage squads representing various and sundry colleges and service units.

Gerald "Red" Armstrong assumed the coaching duties and found himself face to face with a number of trainees who had had varied high school, college, and even professional experience before being sent to Denison. The immediate problem was to coordinate the individual players and playing systems into a smooth-working outfit that would be able to meet all comers. As the final record shows, he did his job well.

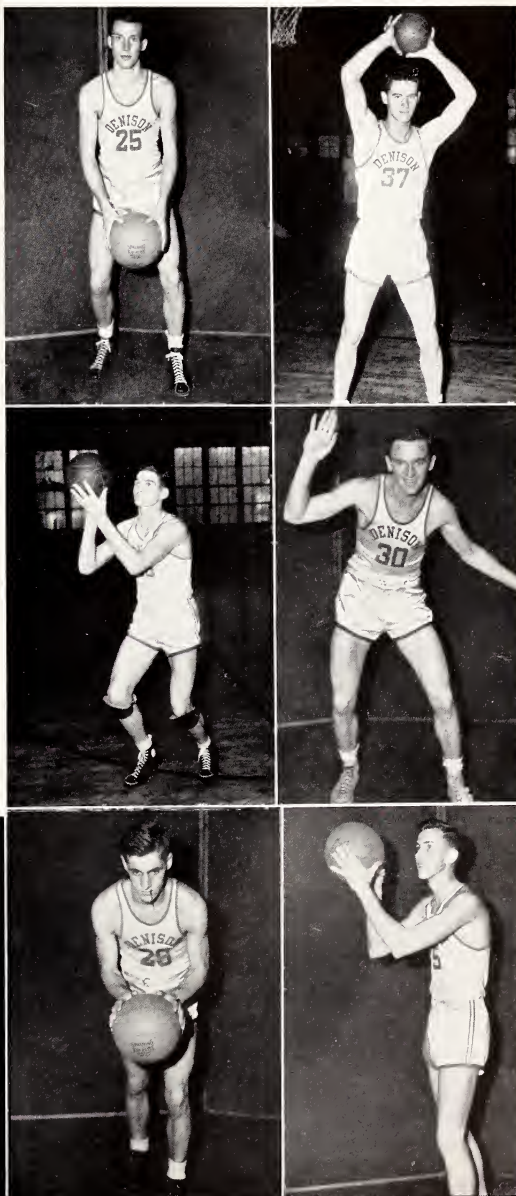

Throughout the season the starting lineup read: Captain Russ DeVette at one forward, 6'7" Leonard "Lee" Knarek at center, and Leslie Deaton and Robert Duckett at guards. The fifth position was held by John Young or Richard Higgs, and James Staudt appeared on the scene more often than not at either guard or forward. Of the eight trainees mentioned Knarek, Young, and Staudt were Navy trainees, the others Marines.

DeVette, Knarek, and Deaton had won all-state honors while playing with their former colleges before entering the armed forces; Rusty at Hope College, Michigan; Deaton, at Simpson College, Iowa; and Knarek, at DeSales, Ohio, as well as Detroit University, in Michigan. All won their honors at center, but this year DeVette and Knarek won first team all-Ohio recognition as forward and guard respectively. Duckett, formerly captain of the Carroll College, Wisconsin cage team, won honorable mention for his fine all-round sparkplugging.

The Big Red started off by soundly whipping three neighboring service teams: Port Columbus 79-36; Fort Hayes 74-34; and Lockbourne 95-43. Traveling to Columbus to help open the season for Ohio State, the Big Red went down to defeat to the tune of 60-49. The big floor of the Columbus Auditorium seemed to put the team at a disadvantage, one they were not able to overcome till late in the season. Incidentally, State later went on to Big Ten championship.

Easily disposing of Ohio Wesleyan, 75-54, and Lockbourne for the second time 69-25, Denison opened the Ohio Conference schedule by whipping Capital at the Wigwam 68-31.

Don Otten and Company alias Bowling Green State College gave the Big Red its second and last beating of the season on the winners' home floor 53-39.

Bouncing back from this defeat, Denison broke a state record when it scored 108 points against Ohio Northern at Ada. Running on down the line, Oberlin, Wesleyan, Ohio University, and Northern fell before the Red axe. Wooster lost its first conference game on its own floor when Denison won that one by 44-38. Baldwin-Wallace was next by 78-62.

February 9th is the day that will undoubtedly go down in Denison basketball history. Touted as the teams of the sector, the Big Red met Bowling Green in a return engagement in the Wigwam. The game brought the crowds from Columbus and an overflow of 1750 spectators filled the Wigwam. To tell the story of each exciting moment would take up too much space but suffice to say that Captain DeVette led his team to a well-earned victory. He scored 19 points; Knorek held the 6' 11" Otten to two field goals in 38 minutes, and the remainder of the team played the best ball the Wigwam will see in many a moon.

The last four games were away from home. All were victories with Ohio U., Muskingum, Capital, and B-W again going down to defeat.

Congratulations are in order for each member of the squad, but much more must be said to and of Red Armstrong. His coaching job was a tough one, but he turned out too good a team to be true.

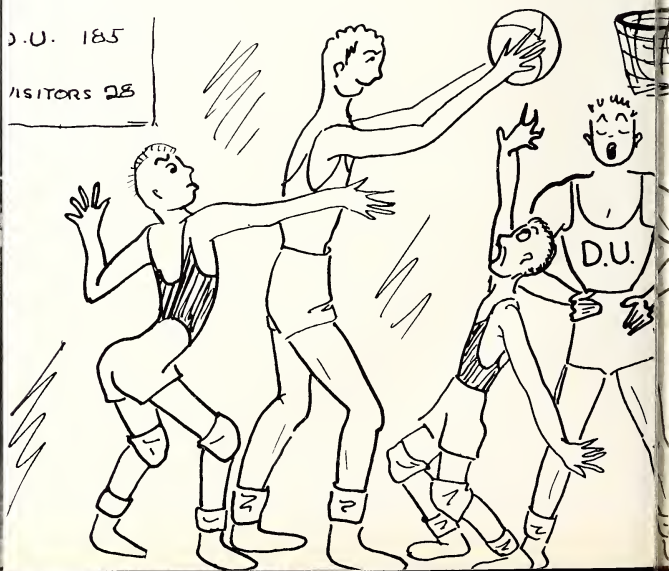

Some interesting statistics on the team are:

High scorers: Knorek—314, DeVette—302

Team scoring record: For—1411, against—913;
average—70.55, 40.65

High scoring average: Knorek—15.7, DeVette—15.1

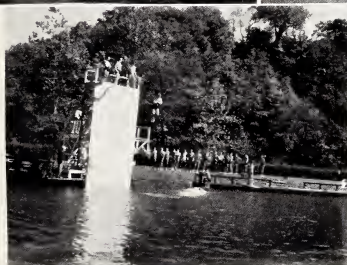

Both Knorek and DeVette broke the Denisonian scoring record of 246 points set three years ago by "Ike" McFadden.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

As so many things on campus have changed this year so has the intramural program. The teams came from the halls and platoons rather than from fraternities as in former years. Any of the male population of the school who had been here four months was eligible for intramural games, which were played on weekdays after four o'clock. Some squads were self-chosen; others were appointed. There was no attempt at a scoring chart because of the constant change.

Starting out in July with softball, this sport gave way to speedball and volleyball, touchball and some relay meets. Fifteen teams participated in each sport. Most of the winter season was taken up with basketball. After April track, baseball, softball, volleyball, and tennis will come again to the fore. No matter what the circumstances, Denison does not let down on the sports activity for its men.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

The only noticeable change in the women's athletic program was the spring season which was limited to more inside activity than usual as a result of the accelerated program. In the fall the intramurals included hockey, archery, tennis, and riding. As winter approached, basketball, swimming, badminton came to the front. The third season included outdoor activity and volleyball. Dancing seemed to be exceedingly popular this year; it was offered all three seasons. Class competition was at its usual high peak.

The Women's Athletic Association kept up a rapid pulse. Early in the fall it sponsored a supper for the freshmen in Rose Quorry. Association meetings were held once a month. "Greek Games" and "Christmas Sing" were among the most entertaining meetings. In November Lt. Moore spoke to the club. W.A.A. sponsored a recreational leadership course and worked on the Newark Trailer Camp project. Associated with W.A.A. are Raccoon Ramblers, the outing club, and Orchesis, dancing group. The annual dance recital was presented in March. Millie Holt was president of the association.

ADYTUM QUEEN

Betty Barnes

Miss Betty Barnes, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, member of Kappa Alpha Theta, is as far as we know, the first girl to reign as ADYTUM Queen for four consecutive years. Her beauty was hailed this year not only by regular Denison students but also by the service men here from many campuses.

ARMY

Priscilla Stokes

The boys of the AAFCTTC chose Miss Priscilla Stokes, from Troy, New York, as their idea of Denison beauty. She is a freshman and member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

MARINE QUEEN

Marty Downing

Miss Martha Downing, also of the freshman class, rated first with the Marine Corps. A member of Delta Delta Delta, her home is Middleport, Ohio.

NAVY QUEEN

Kay Ackles

The sailors on campus show they really recognize beauty in their choice of Kay Ackles, from Detroit, Michigan, as Navy Queen. Kay, a freshman, is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

They BOTH have a stake in their Electric Company!

Paul Packard owns some stock in the local light and power company. Jimmy, the Newsboy, never bought a share of stock in his life. But he has a stake in the electric company too—because Jimmy's bank invests his small savings in just such business. Your savings bank, your life insurance company, your fraternal order probably put some of your money into electric securities. In a very real sense the electric light and power companies were built by the same people they serve. For in them are savings of 45 million bank depositors and 66 million insurance policyholders—your savings—invested in American business and carefully managed by experienced business men—for you—and for American.
